Imran supporters, police clash in Pakistan

1 policeman killed, five in critical condition, 70 injured as they tried to stop protesters from reaching Islamabad

LAHORE

A policeman was killed and 70 injured when former prime minister Imran Khan's supporters clashed with security personnel deployed to prevent the protesters from reaching Islamabad, the Punjab government said on Monday.

Punjab Information Minister Azma Bokhari at a press conference here said many policemen were taken "hostage" after Pakistan Tehreeke-Insaf (PTI) supporters clashed with the police on the way to Islamabad.

The 72-year-old former premier issued a "final call" on November 13 for nationwide protests on November 24, denouncing what he termed as the stolen mandate, the unjust arrests of people and the passage of the 26th amendment, which he said has strengthened a 'dictatorial regime'.

His supporters resumed march towards Islamabad on Monday after an overnight stop on the way amid stiff resistance by the authorities to foil their attempt to enter the

However, the PTI came armed from Khyber Pakhtunkhwa to wreak havoc and instigate violence, she said.

Bokhari said KP Chief Minister Ali Amin Gandapur's province was burning yet he was trying to set Punjab on fire. "The PTI wants dead bodies to achieve its objectives. However, the State will act with patience and restraint," she said and added that Pakistan could never prosper with Imran Khan in charge. The PTI, on the other hand, said over 3,500 party leaders and workers were arrested by police in Punjab and Islamabad.

Leftist leader wins Uruguay prez poll

Montevideo: Uruguay's leftist opposition candidate, Yamandu Orsi, became the country's new president in a tight runoff on Sunday, ousting the conservative governing coalition and making the South American nation the latest to rebuke the incumbent party in a year of landmark elections worldwide. Even as the vote count continued, Alvaro Delgado, the presidential candidate for the center-right ruling coalition. conceded defeat to his challenger.

Pro-Russia candidate leads in Romanian polls

Bucharest: A far-right, pro-Russia candidate took a surprise lead on Monday in Romania's presidential election. Calin Georgescu was in pole position with 23% after the first round of voting on Sunday, a political earthquake in the country of 19 million people that has so far resisted nationalist appeals that have gained traction in neighbouring countries. Experts say the far right's surprise success could profoundly affect the parliamentary elections later.

RESCUERS in Indonesia recovered 16 bodies under tonnes of mud and rocks or that were swept away in flash floods that hit mountainside villages on Sumatra Island, officials said on Monday.

Six people are still missing, officials said. Mud, rocks and trees tumbled down a mountain after tor-
